Man Walks In Darkness

10-19-02: As I was praying in the Spirit, I heard this phrase—“man walks in darkness.” I picked up my pen and paper and the Holy Spirit guided me to write—“Man walks in the darkness of his mind, fore he limits knowledge and wisdom by his earthly thinking of who I am, what my Kingdom is about, what my authority is and how it applies to his relationship with me. As I am denied, kicked out and cursed daily by the laws of this nation, I oblige. As my protection is lifted, more darkness will cover this nation. But within the darkness, I have my points of light waiting to be called out. Before I call them, more sin will abound, many lives will be lost needlessly and my judgments will continue to increase. In the darkest hours when all has been shaken, I will release my points of lights and my truth will be heard and my army will be made ready.” Amen.

Brothers and sisters, Jesus Christ is coming and he wants us to know the signs. Are you ready? Repent while there is time so you can produce good fruits. Never ever forget. God is a God of love, grace and mercy. He is always ready to forgive us of our sins if we will truly repent and obey. Never ever forget. It is our unrepented sins that separate us from God. Repent and prepare while there is time, for tomorrow may be too late. Amen.
