Who Are We Serving?

December 11, 2001 the Holy Spirit said write these things:

“In the beginning I created earth and man so that I may have communion with him. My desire has never changed. From the beginning man has gone his own way, by his choice. I have never given up my desire to fulfill of making my presence known among my creations. I chose Israel, I sent Jesus Christ and still my present is denied.

Sin separates me from my children. Lack of personal prayer separates me from my children; lack of knowledge of my Word separates me from my children. Denying my Holy Spirit separates me from my children. Man’s church doctrine separates me from my children.

Look, I sent my son Jesus Christ. Upon him the church was built. The keys of the Kingdom were given for binding and loosing and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. Today I look down from heaven; I see that the keys to the Kingdom are not being used. The gates of hell are banging at the door of the church. For prayers, I hear mostly prayers of crisis and see fear among the churches and my children within. Fear is not of me but of Satan.

How much longer will you refuse me? Do you think I will not judge my churches? Do you think I will not judge this nation? How much longer are you going to live in fear? You are sick and dying, why? I ask you, where are your thoughts and eyes focused? Are your eyes and thoughts first on me and then the world? This is not what I see.

Stop now what you are doing. Ask yourself, who am I serving? Who do I want to serve? Let this day be a new beginning. Go back to the day in time when you came into my Kingdom and plant your feet at that time. Now, fasten your eyes upon me and begin again to walk upon the path I want you to be on, follow the scriptures and be my children with whom I can communicate with and be in your presence. Let the sin and the cares of this world no longer separate us and receive all the blessings I have for you in this world and the world to come.” Amen.

Proverbs 28:9 9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination. (KJV)

Psalms 32:1-6 1 Oh, what joy for those whose rebellion is forgiven, whose sin is put out of sight! 2 Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of sin, whose lives are lived in complete honesty! 3 When I refused to confess my sin, I was weak and miserable, and I groaned all day long. 4 Day and night your hand of discipline was heavy on me. My strength evaporated like water in the summer heat. Interlude 5 Finally, I confessed all my sins to you and stopped trying to hide them. I said to myself, "I will confess my rebellion to the LORD." And you forgave me! All my guilt is gone. Interlude 6 Therefore, let all the godly confess their rebellion to you while there is time, that they may not drown in the floodwaters of judgment. (NLT)

John 9:31 ³¹ Well, God doesn't listen to sinners, but he is ready to hear those who worship him and do his will. (NLT)
