They Will Not Enter In

The dream on this date December 23, 2002 was in bits and pieces. I was back in Meade, Kansas attempting to run my old communications business. I had nothing but problems and embarrassment. I could not find my way around. I became confused as to who I was, where I lived, where my business office was, what I drove, who my customers were, what I owned and finances for the future.

When I woke up, the Lord spoke this to me—“Just as the children of Israel would not enter my physical promised land in spite of good reports, my children today will not enter my spiritual promise land in spite of what Jesus accomplished on the cross and the good reports of the apostles.

They wallow at the door of the promise, but refuse the true fruits of the promise. They are like the children of Israel in the wilderness and like you were in the dream. They are lost and confused. They refuse to enter into the Kingdom and partake of the gifts and blessings I have for them. They are consequently sick, weak, blind and deaf. They deny the promises through rebellion and disobedience.

I show you this again. I do not want you to be deceived by what you see of them in the physical. Spiritually they are dead. Without change and repentance they are a millstone rolling on the broad road to hell. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten.” Amen
