Four Glorious Hours With The Father, The Son And The Holy Spirit

On August 11, 2002 I went to my prayer closet and spent four glorious hours with the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. I share these three warnings from the Lord as part of what I recorded that day.

“I am bringing out of my store house in heaven and I am pouring it out upon my children. It is my cup of wrath of disobedience and they will drink it to the dregs. I am pouring out a second cup of judgments upon this nation. This cup will be a bitter cup that will be sour and mixed with bruises. They will drink all of it.

No more will I hide myself. I will be among my chosen ones that I have set aside for these times of judgments. They will walk in the fullness of heaven, in glory and power. When they speak my truths, their words will carry the same power as when I spoke words and created the physical. (Note—when I recorded this I paused when the Lord said “the same power” and the Lord meant what he said and I recorded it correctly.) As they walk and speak, those who raise their hands against my Heoieta’s will be judged and the judgment will be seen by all.

Out of these judgments will come my Church. It will be one with me as I am with the Father. It will be on my foundation with all corners connected, with no gaps or divisions. Upon it I will pour revival. My army will be made ready.

Who can stand against me? What power has man against heaven? What is man besides my creation? Woe unto any man who comes against his creator. I will blow him around like whirling dust, like chaff before the wind. I will terrify him with my tempests and storms. I will utterly disgrace him and make him a failure in all things he does until he submits to me his creator. He will drink the cup of my wrath in the day forth coming. He will have no peace or rest, only fear of his own bitterness he sees around him. What will he see? Death and destruction from my judgments is what he will see.

In these judgments forth coming my mercy and grace is ending for those who will drink from my cup of wrath. I will still love them, but as they drink the cup I wait to see who will listen to my truths as they are proclaimed. Those who listen and say yes and reach out for and accept my truth, I will restore mercy and grace. Woe unto those who continue to reject my truths. Their lives on this earth will be misery upon misery until repentance comes. With no repentance the gate of hell awaits them.

No longer will I tolerate man and his doctrines that overrule my truths. No longer will man mislead my flock. No longer will I allow my flock to sit in passiveness. No longer will I remain silent. I am shaking, squeezing and pressing all. Again I say all who are not for me and all of my truths and not in obedience to my truths will drink from my cup. My wine will flow forth with shaking, squeezing and pressing. I pour the wine into a new wine skin. I will carry that wine skin at my side. No longer will I allow my flock to be mislead by hirelings. My shepherds that I have picked will lead them.

Hear this word and tremble in fear of me. I am God the Almighty. There has been no one before me or no one after me. I will do all things and man with his utterances will not and cannot stop me. I have spoken it and it will be done. Who will believe? Who will obey? Those who know me in their secret place and know my voice. I am God, the I AM, the Alpha and Omega.” Amen.

“What is, will no longer be. What is to be will be the opposite of what was. Who can comprehend what will be? I have given warnings in dreams, visions, and prophecy. To fully understand the what will be must be seen and walked in. My children read, but do they understand? They have been told, but do they listen? They will understand and they will listen for they shall see and experience my wrath. Will they repent? No, not all but some. The some is called a remnant. I excel and expand my kingdom with remnants. They give all their hearts to me. Nations are established and armies are raised from remnants. They will be called misfits, but they will be my misfits. The world will deny them and I will bless them. They will be my church, I will be head and they will be the body. My shepherds will be over them. They will be complete, competent, and compatible in my kingdom work. Come and be my misfit. I have called many, but few answer. To serve me, you will suffer and be separated from family members and old friends. But who is your family and who is your friend? I am your family and I am your friend. Come into my family of misfits.

Who am I?

I am your creator.

Who am I?

I am your salvation.

Who am I?

I am your power.

Who am I?

I am the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. That’s who am I.

Do you have all of me?

To be complete with me you must have all of me.

Are you born of woman?

You have my spirit, the Father.

Are you born again?

You have my Son’s spirit in you.

Are you born of the spirit?

You have my Holy Spirit upon you.

One, two, and three you must have all of me,
the Trinity.

I ask you this, can you be complete in yourself, if you lack your spirit, your soul or your body?

No, it takes all three for you to be complete and alive. Without a spirit you are dead, without a soul you are dead, and without a body you are dead.

What makes you think you can be complete in Me without the three of Us?

One, two, three, four, five, six this is what it takes to make you tick. Without all six you are either dead or incomplete, incompetent, and incompatible.”

“The days of silence are over. Heaven will move upon this earth. There will be a collision between righteousness and iniquity. War has been declared. Who has the authority to declare war? I the Sovereign God. Why is war being declared? I am tired of the stench and the messes my children are making. They are spoiled brats. Who spoiled them? It is I, for I love them and have tried to woo them to maturity with many blessings. They have taken my blessings and used them for worldly pleasures. The shepherds have become deaf to my prodding and are shearing and fleecing and not feeding my flock. Now I will wean my children of their worldly treasures and remove the shepherds. There will be bleating and cries of anguish as I discipline and restore order to my flock. I will have my church as it is written. Let no man stand in my way. If he does, my righteousness will consume him and the worldly pleasures he loves. They will look and see my path of righteousness. They will tremble in fear and know God has been among them.” Revelation 3:19 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. (KJV)
