

38

Out Of Judgments Blood Will Be Spilled

In prayer this morning January 11, 2003, I was walking and praying in the spirit. As I prayed I was thinking how easy it is to get side tracked from God's work and fall back into the worldly things. As soon as my thought was complete, the Spirit of the Lord came over me and I fell to the floor. The Lord started speaking, then said "pick up your pen and write". Here is what the Lord spoke.

"As my Word says 'the path is narrow and few find it', the few that find and walk the narrow path, some forget the purpose of that path. The pleasures of the world shine like beacons calling out. Look and see, you need this. Look and see, do this. Look and see, come and do says the world.

Many answer the siren call of the world and lose the focus of who they are and that their purpose is to serve me. I love and I discipline those who have fallen. I never give up on calling them back. Many quit listening because the lights and the sounds of the world capture their hearts again. Woe unto them, they are worse off than before. They disobeyed my Word after they found it. Those without repentance on that day of their day of death or at the sound of the trumpet will be cut off from me and my glory forever. I am God, I change not. Repent while there is time.

There is no fear of me or the consequences of unrepented sin. They take no responsibility for their actions, for they know not the whole truth of my Word. I will be feared again. They will know it is I, God. The fire of my judgments will cause the blood of many to run in the streets. There will be none to bury the dead. The dead will outnumber the living. I am God, I will no longer be mocked. For every action, there is an opposite and equal reaction. What's to be will be the opposite of what was. I am changing things. The good times and the parties are over, for I am the opposite and equal reaction. In tears, I have waited for repentance. I have warned by my prophets. Who has listened? Who has repented? Now I judge because I love you and you are my children. If I did not judge, you would be bastards unclaimed and unloved. Now you must suffer the hand of my discipline. I will have my Church out of these terrible judgments. You have left me no choice, but to do these things.

A warning to those I have called. Don't be in a hurry for these things to come to pass. You must continue to prepare and focus on the task that's to be done soon. Don't allow yourself to become discouraged and disappointed, thinking I will not do these things. Because you will be tempted and fall off the narrow path. I am a God of patience and hope. I never give up even though I turn up the heat of my judgments. On that day suddenly much blood will be let and you must be ready with the message and ministry I have called you to do. I am God, I change not. My Church will be made ready.

It has to be this way. I did not cause this, I am only the opposite and equal reaction from the choices this nation has made since its birth. They have fallen from the narrow path. The Founding Fathers put your feet on the narrow path. With each succeeding generation more refuse the path. Now wickedness abounds. What is wrong is now considered right. Sin is not sin but a problem. Demons don't exist anymore. The 'church' compromises my Word. My Holy Spirit is not allowed to do his work. You think you need nothing. You say I am rich and ruler of the world by military might. Your lips say God Bless America. Without repentance, you are not blessed but judged. You are nothingness in my site. You are murderers, killers of the unborn. Your hands are covered with blood, your hearts are full of darkness, but I still love you. In my love I judge you. Your judgments will be likened to the sins you have committed and you shall see it before your very eyes. Your blood will run in the streets. Who can protect you? Who can you run to? There is only one. It is I, your God who loves you. Repent now or suffer what I have spoken.

I know your hearts. I know your thoughts. They are not of me or of my Kingdom. Therefore these judgments will consume some of you. Those that live will be given a chance to repent while in pain and sorrow and be the remnant for my Church. I set things in order before I come. I tarry not. How much longer are you going to tarry in sin, not hearing or obeying my Word and the Spirit? My will will be done on earth as in heaven. The children of Israel suffered because of sin and giving me lip service. So shall you. I am no respecter of persons." Amen.

Holy Spirit Guided Ministry
John A. Kropf
A Prophet of Jesus Christ
8476 Pine Ridge Lane
Rogers, AR 72756
479-531-1903
mej2way@cox.net
www.holyspiritguidedministry.com