The Dull Pain

Date: June 9, 2002 (The Unexpected from the Holy Spirit)

This Sunday after lunch a small dull pain begin in my right front just below the rib cage and also on the right backside just below the rib cage. I rebuked the pain in the name of Jesus and commanded it to leave. It remained with me all afternoon, never better or worse. Then when I retired for the night at 10:00 PM the pain flared to excruciating levels. When the fierce pain began, I started praying in the spirit. Then I spoke out in tongues and the Holy Spirit gave interpretation. "The pain you will overcome and it will pass." I was unable to get relief. I tried the sofa and rocking chair. I tried laying and sitting. All the time I was praying in the spirit. At about 12:00 AM I went to the basement. I sat in a chair with my body folded up in pain and cried out to God. As I sat in the chair folded up crying out to God, I bound and loosed in prayer. I asked God if there is anything I have done to displease him. Then I praised God, confessed the Word of God and continued to pray in the spirit.

Some time later the Holy Spirit started speaking to me. "The pain you have I have let you share as I have let you share my grief and tears. This pain I let you share is the pain this nation, churches and Christians will experience when my judgments begin. This pain will be physical and spiritual. Also the pain is to teach you to have compassion, love, grace and mercy for those who come unto me as you speak my truths that I have been showing you. Yes, in their pain and it will not be isolated to one area, but across this nation completely, they will hear my truths and there will be a harvest for My Church. That is the purpose of this time of rebuke and chastening."

After the Lord spoke this, I walked the floor praying in the spirit and the pain started to lift slightly. As I walked and prayed the anointing became too great for me to stand and I went to the floor on my knees with my forehead on the floor. As I was still praying in the spirit and in pain, the Lord guided me to pray for certain people; that they would to come into God's truth and be born of the Spirit. I thanked the Lord for the salvation of others I have prayed for in the past.

I continued walking and praying in the spirit and the pain became less. The anointing overpowered me again and again I went to my knees. I continued to pray in the spirit with my forehead on the floor. I was stuck in that position praying in the spirit. Much later I could stand again and the pain had subsided to a dull hurt. The Lord said—"you have passed my test this night and remained faithful to me." It was after 2:00 AM. I went to bed and slept. Praise God.

Amen.

Isaiah 21:3-4 3 My stomach aches and burns with pain. Sharp pangs of horror are upon me, like the pangs of a woman giving birth. I grow faint when I hear what God is planning; I am blinded with dismay. 4 My mind reels; my heart races. The sleep I once enjoyed at night is now a faint memory. I lie awake, trembling. (NLT)
