

Jesus Will Have His Church

In morning praying December 10, 2002 my Lord and Savior spoke these things—“I have waited a long time for my Church. Until my Church is established, the conditions of the first five dreams that I gave you cannot be fulfilled. But first darkness must cover the land and those who are walking in darkness and the ones in whom my light burns dimly. In that darkness the opposite of what was will be. Out of that darkness I will have my Church. Those in that darkness will see my points of light shining in the darkness like the noon day sun. Those in darkness will be drawn to my points of light like a moth to a fire and they will be ready to hear my truth that will come forth from my points of light. Out of this darkness my Church will shine like a bright morning star. Those who I have called, my points of light, be warned. Remain humble and teachable so that darkness will not overtake you. Be in love and truth with fellow laborers. I will accept nothing less. Fear my Father and not man. Continue to be one in me as I am with my Father.” Amen.

On December 12, 2002 the Holy Spirit spoke and taught this—“The old must pass away, for the old ways are of half truths based upon the doctrines of man’s thinking in the ‘churches’ he owns. They are not my houses. My church is not of buildings, but of living stones. The old must die that they may live in me and not in themselves. But I tell you this again this day, they will refuse to die because of pride and rebellion against me. In these judgments there will be a harvest of the wheat that will matured by the leaders I have raised up. I warn you again. In the days ahead the greatest enemy will be the ‘churches’ that refuse to die. I will turn them over to the prince of this world for their minds are debased [to make lower in value, quality, character, dignity, etc.; cheapen] and their souls are lost. But stand firm, I give you the power to overcome. Use the keys to the Kingdom to bind and loosen by speaking my Word with fasting and prayer. I am changing things. I am putting my house in order according to my Word before I come. It will be a new house of new wine and it will be one with me in unity of Spirit with love and truth. The old will remain old and worthless and will be of no good for Kingdom work.” Amen.

Interlude.

“They will no longer be allowed to compromise my Word and still call themselves Christians. Their sin is rebellion and that is of the anti-Christ. I have shown you the requirements. No more short cuts and steps left out. Do not ignore my Word. If they are not in my truth, they are not in me. I am a God of love and I discipline those who claim to be mine so they may repent and truly be mine.”

Interlude.

“The apostles and prophets of the first century church laid the foundation and they are to be praised. Since the first century there has been much building on that foundation, but the church is not yet completed and Paul warned about building on that foundation. [1 Corinthians 3:10-15 10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. 11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; 13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. 14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. 15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. (KJV)] For almost two thousand years the builders have built with the doctrines of man mixed with the doctrines of Christ. The church has been compromised and now stands with gaps and divisions without truth, unity or love.

The time now has come for my church to be completed by the ones I have called. They will be praised when the church is completed. But as the foundation builders were persecuted and killed, many will today will be persecuted and killed as they complete the work. They will remove the doctrines of man and make Christ the head with the apostles, prophets, teachers and the Holy Spirit gifts [1 Corinthians 12:28 28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. (KJV)] to have a mature church without spot or wrinkle. And I God, by the Holy Spirit will be with you in Spirit, power and might. The latter will be greater than the first. The greater works are yet to be done, but only through my completed church, a new man in Christ who is neither Jew nor Gentile. [Colossians 3:11 11 In this new life, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbaric, uncivilized, slave, or free. Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

(NLT)] It will be done and the gates of hell will not prevail.[Matthew 16:18 18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (KJV)] My church will over come, as I overcame, to be a light unto the world and not a light of the world. Let me open your eyes and ears to receive what I have shown you.” Amen.

From a study by Jonathan Hansen, World Ministries International titled New Wineskin & A Fresh Anointing Part 3.1 From 1 Corinthians 12:28—“Here we see God’s order for the church leadership. It says:...first apostles, second prophets, third teacher, then miracle, then gifts of healing, helps administrations and various kinds of tongues. God has appointed a particular design for His Church. 1st in order of authority are apostles. In the Early Church the apostles appointed elders as overseers, made decision for the whole Church, and oversaw individual congregations. Prophets are second. Today most churches that accept prophets place them in submission to the pastor. This is unscriptural, and it grieves the Holy Spirit. This does not mean that every prophet has authority over every pastor, however, a prophet who is accepted as a prophet to the church, does have authority over a pastor. (It is worth reiteration here that some senior minister currently being called ‘pastor’ really are anointed as apostles; in that case a prophet should submit to their ‘pastor’.) First Corinthians 14:32 tells us that ‘the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets’. Therefore prophets must submit to each other. Also since they are second in authority, they should submit to directives from apostles. Teachers are third. This category does not include every Sunday school teacher or Bible study teacher. We are referring to an office recognized by the church whereby an anointed teacher is placed among the presbyter. Teachers must be submitted to apostles and prophets, and yet be willing to work alongside other teachers. Miracle workers are important as the fourth level of authority. Paul and Barnabas justify their position by ‘elating what signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles’ (Acts 15:12). Who is going to argue with a person through whom God does miracles? An elder with a gift of miracles is to be recognized above those with less anointings. The fifth gift is that of healing. In the same way that miracles are confirmations of God’s authority, so also is healing power. The sixth gift is that of helps. Although the Bible does not describe this gift, I will explain how I understand it. I do not see helps as the servant position in which Christians clean the church, run the nursery, or do carpentry. It would make no sense to place that type of gift above administrations. I see this gift as the anointed position in which a person stands alongside and serves, in a very personal way, an apostle or prophet. Most true apostles or prophets need a helper, much like Elijah had Elisha as his servant. That helper needs to have authority in the church, and especially over the administrations, because the helper knows personally how to serve the needs of the apostle or prophet. An example from the New Testament is Tychicus, whom Paul describes as ‘our beloved brother and faithful servant’ (Col. 4:7) Paul sends Tychicus to the church at Ephesus (Eph 6:21), to the church at Crete (Titus 3:12) in order to carry his letter and to give father instruction. Tychicus ministers under Paul's authority, and hence he carries authority over many of the other elders he visits. This is the ministry of helps. The seventh gift is administrations. This title is also interpreted as 'leader' or 'one who governs'. It refers to a person who is not only gifted at organization, but who is anointed for delegating responsibilities and directing groups of people. Paul writes to Timothy about those 'elders who rule well' (1 Timothy 5:17) and says they should be considered worthy of double honor. It was the administrators who ruled over the practical ministries of the local church. They had authority under the apostles, prophets, teachers, and those with the gifts of miracles, healings and helps. The eighth gift is that of tongues. This is the least of the gifts of authority. These eight gifts delineate God's order among the leaders, or elders, in the local church.
