Fear And Worry Comes From Man's Solutions

July 18, 2000

The part of the dream I remember is a pickup truck going down a road. The road was lined on both sides with old dead trees. The further the pickup goes down the road the narrower the road gets and it turns into a lane. The pickup has to stop because there are dead trees lying in the lane. The pickup tries to turn around but when it backs up it hits something in the brush. The people in the pickup get out to look at what they hit. It looks like a nuclear device and they think they have activated some kind of timer on the device. They take it upon themselves to disassemble the device to stop the timer.

In the next scene the launching platform for the nuclear device is found. It is cheaply made with the basic flight controls and instruments in the cockpit area. Behind the cockpit is another area. This is the control center for the delivery of the device found by the people in the pickup. On the right side of the control center is a bucket of wire looking brushes. The people that found the platform finally found out that it is Russian made and had been stored there for many years. The brushes must be installed in the device to make it active. This is unknown to the people in the pickup as they continue to disassemble the device. These same people at the pickup send out a warning of what they are doing. The person that went to warn others, got drunk. Next he is removing some kind of airplane and is driving it down a road. The airplane wings and tail are folded up. He reaches an area where he can unfold the wings and tail for take off; for he wants to get out of the danger zone. The airplane is old and looks as though it will fall apart at any time. There are others that are trying to board and attach lines to be pulled along. The airplane is finally airborne and one of the persons that was attached by a line to the airplane, breaks and falls off.

Interpretation from the Holy Spirit.

“Man only creates to destroy himself and others. They seek themselves for solutions and answers creating fear and worry. I create life, abundance and peace. Seek Me first and your fear and worry is only a bad memory from your past. 10-03-02 The Holy Spirit added—“The airplane represents the current day churches. They have folded themselves up in traditions and doctrines. As such they cannot serve me in the days to come. All who attach themselves to the churches will suffer, for they will not escape the danger zone of my judgments.

From the eyes of my heart: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth, all living things and food for all living things. God created man and woman, planted a garden called Eden and put man in the garden to cultivate it. God gave man authority over all the earth He created. Man destroyed himself in the garden of Eden. Until the Kings of Kings and Lord of Lords returns, man is and will continue to be a destroyer. Seek Jesus Christ in his fullness and in the spirit and prepare for the return of our King and Lord Jesus Christ.
