What Is, Will Be No More

From the Lord God: August 21, 2002

“Emphasize—What is, will be no more and what’s to be, will be the opposite of what was. This means the line will be drawn in the sand when my next judgment comes and pain and sorrow begins. Now listen very carefully of what I am about to say. Those who have been in my mercy because they are sinning and their sin is disobedience to my Word will no longer have salvation. Only by repentance in pain and sorrow during my judgments will I extend mercy back to them so they may come into my grace and salvation.

Now listen again very carefully. If you are the remnant that I have called and set aside, you must be in unity and one accord because I have called you together to be taught my truths. You must listen to my spirit and obey. You must seek me in prayer for guidance. You must go where I tell you to go and when I tell you. There will be sacrifices of your time. Your time will become my time. I will take you out of the world to serve me. You must obey when I call you, if you are serving me. A mature servant knows who he is in me and knows I will supply and provide. But also know that you will suffer for my name’s sake.

No more wading in my river where you can jump out unto the bank for your flesh’s sake. I only want and accept those who will go to the middle of my river in the main current of my swift waters where there is no bottom and your only security is in me. These are the ones I can use. YES or NO, what is your decision.”
