Foot Washing

August 16, 2002

In the newspaper this morning in the Religious section, there was an article about some Southern Baptist's and their foot washing doctrine and humility. When I went to my prayer closet, the Lord asked me what I thought about the foot washing in the Word. I had to think a bit before I answered. Then I said—"Our humility is our maturity in you Jesus." Then the Holy Spirit guided me as I wrote the following—"The washing of feet was about servitude and humility. Our maturity is about servitude and humility. For we must have both in obeying the Word which is your commandants and the road to Christian maturity is a road of humility and being in obedience to what and where the Holy Spirit guides us. Yes Lord, I will do it, is the washing of the feet.

There is nothing wrong with a foot washing service, but we must not make a doctrine out of it and miss our growth to maturity and understanding of what maturity is for Christians."
