In prayer today the Holy Spirit spoke—“A divided house cannot stand. A compromised house cannot stand. A house without spiritual authority cannot stand. A house that is in rebellion cannot stand. A house that is luke warm cannot stand.

Out of the houses that cannot stand , I will harvest for My house. My house will be a house of prayer with Spiritual authority in unity, in truth, and in love. My house will stand being overcomers until the end. My house will be mature house loving their lives not unto death. My house will suffer the wrath of the world for My names sake. My house will be made ready before I come. My house will be built in time of judgment and chaos that is being loosened upon this nation.

Those in My house will be in the Spirit. Those in My house will have the gifts of the Spirit. Those in My house will be lead by My appointed leaders. Those in My house will fear Me and not man. Those in My house will do the things I did and greater things they will do. Those in My house will be one with Me as I am one with My Father.

Who will come to My house? Those who walk by faith and not by sight will come to My house. Those who are tired of a milk diet will come to My house. Those who are willing to change and drink My new wine will come to My house. Those who are tired of having their ears tickled will come to My house.

Those in My house will be complete, competent, and compatible in body soul and spirit.”
