Who Will Walk On Water With Jesus

This day as I was in prayer in the Spirit on the floor of my prayer closet, I heard my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ asked me this question. Will you walk on water with Me? As Jesus spoke to John in Revelation by his angel warning the churches, Jesus is still warning his churches in this day by his prophets and by his Spirit. I pray, humble yourself before the Lord as you read this or hear this that you may repent and save your soul from the lake of fire.

This is our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ speaking these words. “Who will walk on water with me? To walk on water with me, you must always keep your mind, heart and soul focused on me. Otherwise you will be like Peter who asked to come to me on the water. He lost his focus when he looked at the waves and his faith left him. But he cried out to me and I pulled him up from sinking.

My children, I warn you this day that you are drowning in the image you have made of me. The worst part is that you think all is well with your soul and you do not cry out for me to save you. What you do not realize is that like Peter you are sinking fast without knowledge. Without knowledge of who I am and what I spoke, you have not wisdom. Without wisdom you will continue to sink to the grave and hell for you see me not and you know me not.

Awaken from the slumber you fools. Arise before it is too late from your drowning in the lies you believe about me. I died for the sins of the world, but who has listened and who has obeyed? Awake and cry out that I may save you from the lies you have believed as truth. I am the truth who is coming for his Church. Just because you have confessed me in your church does not make you saved if that church or any church sees me not by their spirit and obeys me not by my commands written and by my commands given by the Spirit. You and your church is playing the harlot just as Israel did. Examine their mistakes and disobedience. Don't follow their example. Repent and cry out to me that you will be truly saved on the day I return. I warn you this day there are multitudes of church leaders, churches, and Christians that know me not working iniquity in my name that are lost in this day without repentance. Don't think too highly of yourself but examine yourself against my word and repent crying out to me. Then I will lift you up that you may see and obey the truth to be saved.

The day of exposure of the lies, false teachers, disobedient church leaders and church members is here. Suddenly there will be chaos by the judgments of my Father that are going on now. Those doctrines, that all thought led to heaven, will be exposed as lies from the devil. You will find spiritually that the spirit within your church was not of me but of the father of lies. Elijah proved to Ahab and those who worshipped Baal that Baal was false and they died believing those lies. Repent and drown no longer in the flood waters of lies Satan has sent. If you repent not this day and you die as my Father proves his Lordship you will be lost if you die. If you live without repentance, you will suffer greatly. I will lift you up at that time if you cry out to me. Why suffer needlessly and perhaps dying in judgment? Repent and allow me to open your eyes and ears to see and hear my truth, my doctrine by my Spirit. The choice is yours. I am coming as the lion of Judah and my Church will be the lion of Judah on earth before I come.

Know this, all that has been spoken by my prophets is my truth and will come to pass in these final days right before your eyes. Those who serve me will live. Those who serve the doctrines of lies in that church without repentance will be condemned to the lake of fire. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. My truth will prevail regardless of what you believe. I will measure what you believe with my measuring stick of my truth. Without repentance, my measuring stick will cover you and condemn you and you will be seen no more in the place of righteousness. It has been, it is being and it will be done. My word will be completed on this earth, in this heaven and the new earth and the new heaven. All have been invited but only those who have obeyed what is written and what is spoken by my Spirit will enter into the gates of the New Jerusalem. Amen”
