I was walking in the house and the anointing of the Holy Spirit came upon me making it difficult to stand. Then I heard in the spirit the word “nails”. My Lord and Savior Jesus Christ began speaking and I recorded.

“I laid down My life by being nailed to the cross. I was imprisoned on that cross so that man could be set free from the prison of sin and death. Today, I look down from heaven and see man imprisoned with sin and death. Were My nails not enough? Was My death and resurrection in vain? I was faithful and an overcomer. My Father set Me free. I set you free but only if you confess Me and obey My commands. But I see those who have confessed Me still bound up by the doctrines of man and who he believes Me to be. I cry out this day REPENT. I command this day to wait and receive power from heaven. I change not. I am the same yesterday, today and forever. I made promises and was nailed to the cross that these promises would and could be fulfilled.

Repent; cut the cords that bind you. Find Me and be set free from the doctrines of man. He lies when he speaks saying I am not the healer (physically, mentally and spiritually). He lies saying I no longer have apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers. He lies blaspheming the Holy Ghost and tongues. He lies saying My Father will not judge. He lies having the father of lies as his father. Cut the cord of lies from your life. Seek Me in My Word and your prayer closet. Fear My Father. There is no peace in the land even though those lying shepherds speak otherwise.

Repent and obey My commands then I will know that you love me. Who has truth? Only those who have love. Who has love? Only those who obey the truth. Who knows My Father? Only those who have truth and love. Who practices Christianity? Only those who know My Father. You can only find truth and love by being born of the Spirit crucifying the flesh. The flesh man loves to hear lies, hating the truth. The spirit man loves the truth, hating lies. You can only serve one master and your fruit shows who you serve. I still have the scars from the nails on the cross. I stand ready to receive you, if you are in truth and love. Without truth and love My scars will mean nothing to you being received by the father of lies on that day.

Repent and prepare this day to stand in the days ahead by faith making your election sure. Only by My divine power of the Holy Ghost may it be so. That was My command before being taken up into heaven. That is still My command today and yesterday. I was faithful and obeyed receiving My Father's promises. Will you be faithful and obey receiving My promises fulfilled by My being nailed to the cross? I died that you may live if you die to self (the flesh) and be born of the Spirit to walk with My Father in the Spirit as I walk with My Father. To live or to die, I made My choice and obeyed. What is your choice this day, life or death?" Amen

I include what my Lord and Savior taught me this day by the Holy Spirit in my prayer closet December 2, 2003.—

1) God loves all as the sunshine covers the earth. God's grace and mercy are even for those who live in the shadows where the sun does not shine, if they will come into the light.

Who is the light? Christ is the light of life. To receive that light we must repent and live to be the light of Christ and live our lives as Christ did. We must not compromise the light of truth, but live in the truth so the light of Christ will not be extinguished within us.

If we claim we have the light of truth, but we are not in the truth we are lairs living in darkness without light, without truth and without love. We are on the path that seems right, but ends in death. Daily we must examine and test ourselves against the light of truth to see if Christ is in us. Our own salvation depends upon our passing that test. Amen.

2) The Lord spoke this—"Those who draw nigh unto me washing themselves in the word of truth and obeying that truth, I mark as my own. They have made themselves holy as I am holy. They walk one with me in unity with my Son basking in his light. Woe unto those who think they belong to me but darkness covers them. In that darkness they think they have light. They have been deceived by false teachers knowing not the truth. Beware of those in that darkness that think they have light. They serve not me and I know them not. They work iniquity without repentance. They will be lost to the grave and death into eternal darkness." Amen.

Is not the prophecy of Daniel being fulfilled in our day about the king of the north in Daniel 11:31? I did not see this until the Holy Ghost opened my mind to this understanding of this scripture and how it applies in our day.

Daniel 11:31 His army will take over the Temple fortress, polluting the sanctuary, putting a stop to the daily sacrifices, and setting up the sacrilegious object that causes desecration. (NLT) (Desecration in Hebrew is the abomination of desolation.)

If we listen to man who has not received the Holy Ghost as they did on the day of Pentecost or denies the Holy Ghost, we will be deceived. If we listen to man that has received the Holy Ghost but disobeys the commands of Jesus Christ, we will be deceived. Man will teach his own doctrines by his own interpretation of the Word of God. He will twist the scriptures proving his doctrines of lies. He will defy the words of the Lord and wear down the children of God with lies and half truths. He will try to change the sacred words of the Lord bringing the children of God under his control and domination. He will vent his anger against those who challenge his doctrines and reward those who agree and follow the teaching of his doctrines. He and his army of followers have taken over the sacred house of the Lord, the Church. He has polluted the sanctuary stopping the true worship of God in the Spirit. He worships God by his programs and doctrines of whom God is and what God will do and when he will do it. By flattery he has won the children of God over to his side sitting himself up as master and teacher desecrating (to violate the sanctity of, to treat disrespectfully, irreverently, or outrageously) the church of Jesus Christ.

Titus 1:16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. (KJV)

The children of the Lord (the remnant) who know God will resist these men and their organizations. They know God's plans in their lives being ready for their day of salvation. The day is coming that many of these children will fall victim to persecution by these men and their organizations. Some will die by fire and the sword or they will be jailed and robbed. Take heart even Jesus suffered at the hands of the leaders and the leading priests and the teachers of religious law being rejected by his generation before he was killed.

Acts 5:41 The apostles left the high council rejoicing that God had counted them worthy to suffer dishonor for the name of Jesus. (NLT)
