God Does Test Us

As I was eating breakfast, the Lord said write. I asked the Lord now or after I finish eating. The Lord replied, after you eat. Then the Lord spoke as I was eating. "I have held back from you to test you. I wanted to see if you would wait upon Me being not anxious and you have done so." God does test us as stated in His word. See Exodus 16:4, Deuteronomy 8:16, or Amos 7:8 and there are other examples.

I went to my prayer closet to write as the Lord had commanded. This is what He spoke. "John I have joy by your thoughts. One example is any time you use hot air dryers to dry your hands, your shake off the remaining water. As you are shaking your hands, you think and say 'Lord I remember what you said about shaking the churches'.

Today and reaffirmation of what I have had you speak these past years. My children that claim Me and the churches have repented not. They continue to build for themselves. These large monstrosities are an affront to Me. They waste and miss the chances to help widows and the poor. Their hearts are hard, their love is cold and their greed for more monstrosities has not abated.

My case against them is complete. The file folder has been sealed and put in the judgment pile. One day soon all the folders in the judgment piles will be opened and given to My angels to bring vengeance to these professing Christians and churches. John you wait as you have been. Continue to watch, listen and see just as I have told My others I have set aside. At My time My army will be activated to go forth preaching repent the kingdom of God is here. Full heavenly power will be given to My army. My army being the ones I called from 12 to 84 years even 94 will hear My word to go forth just as John the Baptist did. My heart is saddened because man would not wait for My will but have went forth in the flesh. I say to you who are set aside. Wait, wait, and wait some more. I have not forgotten you. I do not ignore you. I keep watch over you protecting you. I have called you. I have favored you. I have tested you. This has made you ready. I love you. On your foreheads is stamped 'spiritually set aside for the Lord'. Your names are in the book of life. Again I say wait and hold your peace. Keep your eyes focused on My Son Jesus Christ. I am a God of grace, mercy and blessing. I bless you now in this time of rest. Please don't deny My blessing spiritually and physically. I have not forgotten you and I will give you the word to go forth. Until then enjoy the peace and rest I am giving you." Amen
