As we grow to maturity with Christ leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ and moving on to perfection seeking the face of God and His truths, God will share more and more of His knowledge and wisdom with us. That knowledge can be very blunt (being straight to the point), because we are ready for the meat or solid food of God. We are not longer like children drinking only the milk of the Word being tossed to and fro by the winds of many doctrines being spoken and taught by the precept (a command or principle intended especially as a general rule of action) of man. What follows are examples of God's directness.

In this dream I saw multitudes of people in military uniforms marching in a confined area directed by the fences. They could not get out from the fenced area. The marching began at a chow hall stocked with much food. They would eat and go to a locker area, pick up their tools and go outside and begin marching as guided by the fences. Built beside the fenced areas were many school buildings. They were fenced in also, but not connected to the area of the marchers. I was a participator in the dream. In the mess hall I could not get into line to eat. At the locker area I could not open any of the lockers for tools. As I marched, I escaped the fenced marching area into the fenced school buildings. I came upon a teacher in a hallway of one of the schools. The teacher who looked like a cheetah confronted me and asked me what I wanted. She was very sensual (deficient in moral, spiritual, or intellectual interests) as she confronted me. I said, I would like a drink of water. I was directed out into the school yard and told to wait. While waiting I was approached by a man who claimed to be a CBS newscaster. He put his arm around my shoulder and we started walking.

He said he would explain everything.

The interpretation of this dream came over several days. The Holy Spirit first spoke of the people marching represented the world marching in lock step to hell while doing their worldly things just as in the days of Noah. They have turned their backs on God depending upon themselves for all things. The newscaster was a liar and not to believe what they speak. Days later the Lord spoke—“The reason I could not eat or open the lockers is because I minister unto him and not the world. I was not trapped in their marching and could and did escape. The schools represent the synagogue of Satan being sensual and that they through the news will be allowed to speak lies awhile longer, but all will be exposed in God’s time of judgments.”
