As I sat in bed reading the Word before dressing today, the Holy Spirit started speaking and I recorded the following. “I say again, those who I have called and blessed with dreams, visions, and hearing the voice of the Spirit, if they will not drink of the new wine of my thoughts, ways, and plans they have no place in my Kingdom work in the days ahead. They will only be trouble makers and an anchor among those who are drinking the new wine. Those I will remove from the midst of my Heoieta’s and they will be judged and the judgment will not be delayed but seen by all. Time is short and my workers will not be hindered or distracted from their Kingdom work. My truth will come forth from the words spoken by my chosen ones. Remember, I called you and gave you your heart you have now. It is a Godly heart anointed with a desire to complete the works I have called you to do.” Amen.

Prov 18:21 21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. (KJV)

Later in my prayer closet the Holy Spirit spoke and I recorded. “Blessed are those who walk in holiness with me; they are called my sons and daughters. They will be made responsible for much, but they will inherit much. They are faithful in obedience. They are faithful in the small things. They are faithful in preparation and waiting. They will be overcomers by their faithfulness. In that faithfulness they will walk in my light of glory and power building upon the foundation laid by the first ones I called. There will be power in the words of truth they speak to a nation under my judgment.

My will shall be done, my Church will be completed. That completion will only take place after the false walls built upon the foundation are torn down or remodeled in my image with me as the head of all things on this earth as in heaven. I am changing things. My true sons and daughters, the faithful ones, my servants, will be the wall builders of my Church yet to be established.

It will be my Church, my body that is neither Jew nor Gentile, but one in me, like me and for me; resurrected with the new wine in my light, the light of truth that will illuminate and shine that light into the darkness of this wicked world. It will stand in the day of tribulation unto the end, persecuted even unto death by the evil that will rule just before I come. Those sons and daughters, the faithful ones, will be those overcomers having received my mark and will receive all their rewards waiting in heaven and will walk with me on earth as I reign in power and glory until all enemies are put under my feet. True sons and daughters will be faithful in this life and the life to come. All will be tested for faithfulness up to the day the devil is thrown into the lake of fire, for their names are written in the book of life and their names were not removed for they remained faithful. Those sons and daughters will be blessed for they kept their robes of righteous white by the blood that washes away sin for they kept my commandments and will enter into the new city and have rights to the tree of life.” Amen.
