February 18, 2003

I recorded this dream from last night. Margaret and I are going into a church. Upon entering we are ushered into a seating area. There were multitudes of people inside. We were directed to seating to the left of the entry. I tried to sit down in a seat, but the woman in the seat next to it advised it was saved. Margaret and I went a row or two further down and found seating. The seating was arranged to focus our view down into an arena area. There was much excitement as to what was about to occur. Down in the arena there were exit doors labeled restrooms. I went down and through the doors to the restrooms which were back in the lobby at the entrance area. Upon starting to return to the seating area, I saw that the openings into the arena were being blocked. Instead of the doors just being shut, the whole wall moved and blocked all the openings at one time. No one could exit, they were locked in.

Back in my seat, I saw people coming down out of the seating areas into the arena. There was one lady that seemed to be the leader and other people gathered about her. This was down in front of our seats. Then they all moved to the right and exited out of the arena. Next in the arena was a Korean dressed in robes. He had hung around his neck two large medallions with suns, moons and stars on them. He stood behind a table and held in his hands a cylinder of a greenish color. As he started chanting, he took the cylinder and stared rolling it between his hands. The medallions started to glow. Then the cylinder between his hands started to glow. At that time he sat the cylinder down on the table on its end. He continued to chat and working the glowing cylinder into a form. I noticed that his fingers were dirty with dirt under his finger nails. The form he made was a person that looked female laid backwards over a stone. I saw the forms' mouth open and the teeth were pointed and sharp. The form seems to be alive, but could not move. The Korean had other helpers walking about in the arena as he was doing his chanting and forming the object.

Again there were other people from the audience in the arena. I was down in the arena leaning against a wall with a cover that went over my head and covered my eyes. Then I was floating up in the ceiling area shouting to the people in the audience trying to get their attention. The audience kept on talking and would not look or listen to my voice. I yelled shut up. Then I saw myself sitting in different areas of the audience always looking back toward the area where Margaret and I were seated at the beginning. The people next to me did not seem to even notice me.

The Lord spoke—"I warn you again John. Stay out of churches. They worship idols made by their own hands doing things that are an abomination to me. The fate of those who have entered in is sealed. It is damnation, for they listened to the lies of the church and believed those lies. If you go not in my timing (being sent by the Spirit); you will be stilled, ignored and ineffective."

This warning applies to all that have been called and anointed by God. If we go not with God by His will, we will be troubled on all sides.

Acts 20:26-29 26 *Let me [Paul is speaking] say plainly that I have been faithful. No one's damnation can be blamed on me, 27 for I didn't shrink from declaring all that God wants for you. 28 "And now beware! Be sure that you feed and shepherd God's flock--his church, purchased with his blood--over whom the Holy Spirit has appointed you as elders. 29 I know full well that false teachers, like vicious wolves, will come in among you after I leave, not sparing the flock.
