A Famine Is In The Land

Parts of this warning the Lord has had me speak previously and I have heard the message from others that hear from God. God will keep on speaking His warnings as long as we Christians remain complacent in our religious life style. I again say heed the warnings that you may repent as you stand, lay or sit in the valley of dry bones. The path is broad that leads into this valley. But praise the Lord, there is the narrow path that leads out of that valley into to the Lord's green pastures. Here is the Lord's message.

“There is a famine in this land called America. The famine is the lack of My truth and the disobeying of My word. How sad that My word of truth is carried each week to a church. They hear My word but are deaf. They see My word but they are blind. Yet in the other parts of the world the famine is greater for the lack of My word because My word of truth is not available and if it is available it is priced so high it cannot be had.

Oh America, it is to late for you. I have warned by My prophets. You scoff and discredit My chosen I called to give My word and warning. You have not repented but continue to plow where you should not. Then you till that ground expecting a hundred fold return. Your harvest will be thorns and briers. I remove the shadow of My wings and the cupping of My hands over you. You now stand naked before the host of heaven ready for My just judgments. It is I who will plow now. It is I who will harvest a hundred fold. I will have a people made ready. Them I will cover with My shadow and cup with My hands. Peace they will have even loving their lives not unto death. Suffer they will as they do My will because the world will hate them without cause. They will stand by faith with their whole armor from Me on. When I tell them to go, they will go. When I tell them to rest, they will rest. Some are going and some are resting. Those going will rest and those resting will go. They will feed the world My word. Then the only famine of My word will be those who are blind and deaf. Their names are not written in the book of life. Woe unto the world, My judgments are here. The land will spew you out because of your love of evil. The land desires light and not darkness and light the land will have.

Remember it is only I that knows the date and time of the end of this age. But before that date and time comes, all the world will have a a chance to repent and to become My people.. Shame on you confessing Christians in America because the famine in your hearts should not be. Shame on you churches in America because you are the source of the famine. I have the cure and it is stated above. My will is being done. I will have a people that will belong to Me. I will know they are mine. I will know their hearts. It is the new heart they were given when they confessed in their heart and with their lips that My Son, Jesus Christ, was their Lord and Savior, they were water baptized and they were baptized in the Holy Spirit. Then after a time reading My truth and being taught by the Holy Spirit about My truth, they cried out to Me that My will be done in the lives. These are the ones that are mine. Some are going to do My will. Some are resting to do My will. All are praying in the Holy Spirit words they know not building up their faith. They walk by faith, they believe, and they obey the Spirit doing My will in their lives. They lack no famine as they plant and water making ready My harvest at the end of this age. In each generation I have had a people that have done so. They were ready and they made others ready.

Come forth and feast at My table by repenting and obeying. Then there will be no famine in your life of My word. There are people churches confessing Christ acting as though they are in the world. There are people who have done and are doing My will. They are My people being ready for their day of salvation.

Interlude

July 10, 2009

If you are in the famine of lacking My word because you have not sought the truth and obey that truth, then you are not ready for you day of salvation. You will be like man in the parable who accepted the wedding invitation and was found he was not dressed correctly. Search My word and read that parable. Then repent of you coming and going claiming what you have that you do not have. Rid yourself of the famine that is in the land that you may be mine and do My will. Then you will never hear “depart from Me you who work iniquity”. Amen
