I only write what I hear and to some it may seem repetitious. God changes not and we have repented not. God in His great mercy and patience is still giving time for all to repent and be saved from the lake of fire. Because suddenly the last trumpet will sound and Jesus Christ will come with the clouds of heaven, and every eye will see even those who pierced Him. (See Revelation 1:7.) This includes each of us dead or alive. But if we are alive and not ready, we will be as those who pierced Him. Read and be forewarned and share with another brother or sister in Christ.

Time and You

July 25, 2009 @ 4:30 AM

What is today? What is tomorrow? What was yesterday? What is the element in the above questions? If you answered time, you are correct. Time cannot be bought. Time cannot be stopped by man alone. Only I can stop or reverse time as it is written in My word. I ask each of you, does it seem that time is going faster and faster? Does it seem like the seasons come and go faster and faster? Does it seem the years fly by? It is by man's hand that it is so? (I John A Kropf, add that man's hand is and by man's standards that evil is increasing with each generation. One example is that churches are now condoning homosexual preachers in their churches. God will not be mocked.)

This is the generation that will begin to see some of the results of My promises for the closing of this age. Time has been accelerated for My peoples sake. I warn you, do not begin setting dates for this or when that is going to be. Don't be running to and fro looking for the Spirit moving. Stand with your full armor on. Stand and listen to the Spirit. Then obey what the Spirit saying to be who I want you to be. Doing what I want you to do. When I look down from heaven, I see a people that are like a swarm of bees looking for their queen. Be like the ants storing food for the winter. But let your food be Spiritual food being stored up.

In the time of acceleration you can only be who I want you to be if My word has been obeyed. Have you invited in My Son Jesus Christ into your hearts? Have you followed the examples in My word? Have you been water baptized as John baptized My Son Jesus Christ? Have you received the Holy Spirit that John the Baptist spoke about? Remember John the Baptist said "someone greater that he was coming that would baptize you with fire".

Oh, My people how miserable you will be in accelerated time for you have not received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. You are like a car without a motor. You are like a hunter without a gun. You are like the man who had a ticket to take a bus, a train, a plane or a boat and there are none for transportation. You are and have been sold short the salvation message. To many generations have passed that My people have not heard about or received the fiery baptism of the Spirit. Those who preach otherwise are liars now because I have reached down from heaven and placed in their hearts the truth. I will continue to warn you through My prophets as I accelerate time shaking all things in heaven and on earth. There will be no excuses in judgments as My people will stand before Me having never read the word of God. There will be no excuses when My people stand before Me having read and never sought to obey the word of God. There will be no excuses for those preachers who have never preached about the Holy Spirit or preached up to the Holy Spirit then detoured around the Holy Spirit, or told the lie that was for then and not for now or you get the Holy Spirit when you are water baptized.

I ask you My people, are you ready to receive and walk in these last days anointing listening to the Spirit to do My will as I accelerate time faster than it is now? The answer can only be yes only if you have obeyed what My Son spoke in John 3:3-5, in Luke 24:47-49, in Mark 16:13-18 and in Matthew 28:18-20. I say again, the answer can only be yes if you have done as stated. This is the narrow path. This is My will. This is what My Son died for. Refusing My Holy Spirit that has been given is disobedience. Those preaching the lies are condemned. Wake up My people from you slumber. Repent My people of your disobedience of not obeying My word. Wake up you preachers who preach lies. WAKE UP-WAKE UP AND REPENT. KEEP SLEEPING IN YOUR PEW EACH WEEK is like a pig wallowing in its dung. Wake up and repent to be a sweet fragrance to Me. All I smell is dung. Wake up in this accelerated time and fall not away but fall into My stretched out arms for you with repentance in your hearts. I weep and I cry for you as I see the errors of the steps you are taking walking in a direction that is not pleasing to Me because it is the broad path. Without the Holy Spirit the teacher of truth, the lies you hear and the path you walk only leads to death and the lake of fire.

Time is mine as the earth and the heavens are mine. You are part of My creation. You are mine as I fold time for acceleration if you have obeyed and received as My examples in My word the book of Acts. Receive and not be workers of iniquity without oil in your lamps. You are the lamp and the Holy Spirit is the oil. Without the oil, you will be barred from the wedding party. Light your lamp with the oil from heaven and not the oil of man. Be ready as My word states and not what man states. Amen.

Where are the men of courage that will preach the true gospel message that Paul preached? Will it be pastors in the current 501 3c churches that will preach the truth that liars, homosexuals thieves, adulterers or any that walk the broad path will be cast in the lake of fire on judgment day? Who will preach the truth when the government passes hate laws making it illegal to preach the truth of the word of God? It will be those who love the Lord, obey the Holy Spirit and loving their lives not unto death. Read the word of God and understand that Christians will suffer as evil arises more and more. Christians who have believed the rapture fantasy will be sourly disappointed in the times ahead. Christians heed God's warnings, find the truth and obey that truth to be ready. I challenge you to read the gospel of John and highlight or underline the word truth.

In His Service,
John A Kropf
