From the Lord—“After salvation comes restoration of man to walk in My power, majesty and glory that My will be done on earth as in heaven. Without the restoration man only walks in the flesh and not in the spirit knowing Me not still being in his fallen state and the first Adam. Repent this day and be restored by My order of things. I have need of you in the days ahead to lead being a shepherd of My sheep I am gathering out of judgments and chaos. I am restoring My Church. It will be My body representing the kingdom of God on this earth doing greater things than I did. Repent and be My Church being restored to receive the promises written in My word. Without restoration I know you not.” Then the Lord asked—“What does restore, restored, restoration mean? Who is My servant, who are My children, who is My prophet, and who is My Church?” Amen

Restore or restored—1 GIVE BACK, RETURN. 2 to put or bring back into existence or use. 3 to bring back to or put back into a former or original state RENEW. 4 to put again in possession of something.

Restoration— 1 an act of restoring or the condition of being restored: as a bringing back to a former position or condition. 2 something that is restored; especially a representation or reconstruction of the original form.

Churches as they stand this day have lost their flavor or salt. The Lord by judgments is going to restore his Church back to its former position or condition.

Later that morning in my prayer closet the Lord spoke this—“The over riders and the overridden will no longer keep My truth hidden by their lies and the paths they walk. Who will listen to them when they talk. In sin they stand throughout the land denying My plans. They will be the ones who suffer. They will be no longer but will be overridden by the over riders who proclaim My truth. Darkness will no longer be. My light will set the captives free. Truth will be heard throughout the land as I unfold My plans. My Church will be My light and My power in the coming hours. Who will stand and sing My song in a world of wickedness that does wrong? My Church, My body will mount up and ride as I judge. They will provide a beacon of light for the world. Their light will be seen where peace, love and joy rule supreme.

Mount up this day on the truth I have given and be an over rider being not overridden by the hoofs of untruth. Mount up on wings of eagles and fly proclaiming to the darkness below to repent so that they will no longer be hell bend. Only those who wear My girdle of truth will feast with Me beneath My roof. My table is set and the invitation is given but only those who listen and obey will be saved on that day. They walked in truth that I sent being ready for their day when I call hearing My shout they will know they have salvation with no doubt.” Amen.
