I was reading an internet download and the operator of the site had changed the names of the Lord to the Hebrew names in the article that was written. The Lord spoke the following—"I am God, the I AM. My power and sovereignty does not change for the people of one language to another language when they call Me Lord in their language. Woe unto those who insist that I must be called Lord only by one language. The people are legalists duplicating the way of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Don't be angry with them but pray for them that they may repent when I change things to become one with Me in the Spirit by faith loving their lives not unto death."
