From the Lord in prayer. “My children shackle themselves in leg irons. When they walk it is with great noise caused by the clanking of the chains. They have limited their knowledge by the irons they wear pacing within their prison wall called boxes. Within those boxes they claim much having little being clowns in my site. They made their choices through lack of knowledge to imprison themselves and only by their choices in judgments may they set themselves free of their leg irons. Their irons are like millstones that will cause them to drown in judgments without repentance denying knowledge.

Seek me by wisdom the Holy Spirit. The Spirit cries out to those in leg irons that lack common sense and understanding. Whoever finds wisdom by the Holy Spirit by being born of the Spirit finds life and approval from me, the I AM. But those who refuse knowledge only injure themselves loving death. Free yourself this day. Repent and seek wisdom who gives unending riches, honor, wealth and justice. Love wisdom and hate evil to find life without leg irons that lead to death.” Amen.
