May 15, 2002. What is God's truth?

This morning in my prayer closet I heard this question in the spirit. What is God's truth? Then I asked the question out loud and this is what the Holy Spirit spoke. "My truth is My Word. What is My Word? My Son is My Word, the Bible is My Word, knowledge and wisdom revealed to My sons and daughters in dreams, visions, and hearing in the spirit is My Word. My Word does not lie, but man distorts My truth and makes it a lie. Only by worshiping Me in the spirit, for I am a Spirit, may you discern what comes from the lips of man is the truth or a lie. There is no other way. My Kingdom is not of word, but of power. My Kingdom power comes from being born of the Spirit. My truth will be found by those born of the Spirit, for I give them power and the gifts of the Spirit to do My work. Those who find the truth know it comes from a relationship with me in their prayer closet. They know My voice and I know their voice. Seek Me in prayer and I give freely knowledge and wisdom to those who put Me first in all things with praise and worship. I am a God of order and a sovereign God and My Spirit is in all living things and My Spirit is power to do My will as I see fit. Who is man to question My works. For when man rejects part of My truths, he rejects me. When man rejects Me, he has made himself and teacher and Me the student. Woe unto that man in the day of judgment. Life and death are in My truth. What fruit do you chose, the tree of knowledge (death) or the tree of life. I love all, but man must make a choice between life or death. Remember My truth always covers man's doctrines, no matter how logical his words may be. I tarry not, I come. Are you ready to receive me?"

Then later in the morning as I was praying in the spirit, I started seeing words again in the spirit. I saw one word very clearly and asked the Lord to show it to me again and He did. This is the word spelling and how it is pronounced—meiolekie, (my-o-leak-e). Then the Holy Spirit gave me the definition of the word. Meiolekie—one who speaks without authority about God's kingdom and His ways. One who has self-appointed himself based on his knowledge to speak about God with no anointing or power from God.

This date 08-05-02 the Holy Spirit showed me the word Meiolekie represents two different groups of people. Those who speak without authority are the unsaved and the saved who speak with out anointing or power for they have not the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
