As I went to prayer this morning the Holy Spirit said write this again. “What is will no longer be. What’s to be will be the opposite of what was.”

Then the Holy Spirit went on to speak this—“How many will meditate upon the above statement and believe. How many have listened to my prophet’s with the warning messages? How many “church” leaders passed the test and gave the message I told them to give last year? How many have prepared as commanded by the Spirit? How many will die needlessly in the on going judgments? How many know me intimately? How many walk the narrow path? How many, how many that is the question. The how many is the remnant that is true to me and obey the Word and the Spirit.

My cry to you is seek me now while there is time, prepare now while there is time. In that day coming suddenly, all things will change. What’s to be will be the opposite of what was. What’s the opposite of what was? Look at you life today. What do you see and have today? Think, in this nation you still have food, water, electricity, housing, transportation, jobs, family, medicine, supplies on the shelves, a money system to purchase and pay. Suddenly the opposite will be. Those who know me will not be in fear, pain or sorrow because of loss or lack. These things the opposite of what was are called judgments because of sin. The “church” does not uphold my standard, this nation has kicked me out. I am unloved, unwanted, and denied, for they all do evil in my site.

My wrath of judgments has been loosed and will be completed. For many as I love, I rebuke and chasten, be zealous therefore and repent. Save your soul from hell. Fear me with trembling, cry out with repentance and truly repent with a contrite heart. Humble yourself so I may lift you up and protect you under the shadow of my wings. Separate yourself from the goats and sin. Be the sheep of my flock. Join my remnant and be in my army. I am changing things. I judge and set my house in order before I come. When I come, I will have my body, a church without spot or wrinkle. But for this to happen, what is will no longer be and what's to be will be the opposite of what was." Amen

This day the Holy Spirit said to added to the above.

"What's to be will be the opposite of what was. I will be among my people with power and judgments. I will no longer be silent and by my power and judgments, people will tremble in fear of me and what I can do to them. They will no longer fear man, but the one who can send their souls to hell. They will hear my truths and understand the path is narrow and few find it and walk it. What is will no longer be." Amen.
