In prayer before going to bed, the Lord gave me understanding of the fire of his judgments. This was clarification from the vision I had last year on our business building in Meade, Ks being burned up as I stood afar off and watched. After the building was consumed Margaret, my wife, came walking out the ashes unharmed. At that time the Lord said it was his fire of judgments and those walking with him will be unharmed. As I was thinking about what his fire was, the Lord said take no thought about my fire.

The fire of judgments from God is any of his many judgments that he sends upon a nation or his people that have turned their backs upon him in rebellion. These judgments are not from the hand of man that God has allowed to do his work, but from the hand of God that we will learn that he is God and is to be feared.
