A dream with interpretation from the Lord

What America Traded For

The dream: I had been gone for a long time and came home not to the house I left. The house I came home to was old and need of repair. I kept asking my wife why she sold our other home. Inside of the old house the wallpaper was peeling and along the baseboards the plaster lap boards were exposed due to the decaying plaster on the wall. The house was a small with maybe four rooms. There were visitors in the home that were causing domestic problems. My wife and I had harsh words. I left the house and went elsewhere. Later I was back looking over the property surrounding the house and the house itself. The shingles on the roof were rotting. The siding of the house was loose and falling off. At the back corner of the house part of the footing had fallen away exposing the crawl space under the house. There was yard working tools stored under the crawl space. The yard was very small being full of leaves and trash. The day was a grey day with no sun for warmth.

I went back into the house and sat down on the couch. Then people of many races came into the house smiling being friendly. I picked up a baby crawling across the floor. Immediately the baby loosed its bowels over me and the floor. Now upon the floors I saw excrement and vomit I was trying to clean up the mess with no success.

I was outside and away from the house looking at a paved two land road. Coming down the road were people shoulder to shoulder in rank and file. They were moving as a mob being angry and shouting. Then I saw people lying about unmoving on the road.

I woke up reliving the dream in my mind. Then out of my mouth, I said this house is “sh—”. The Lord spoke and said dung. The Lord then explained the dream. The house in the dream represents what America traded her blessings from the Lord for, being dung. The house represents America as a fifth world country below a third world country. Then the Lord spoke these words: “I am tired of looking down from heaven and seeing in America dung, vomit, lies, murder, greed, pride and immorality among the citizens, the churches, and the government. They have traded me for a dung pile and a dung pile it shall be. The citizens, I shall awaken to their condition when they see the shelves of the stores are empty of food, no fuel, no water, no medicines and no hope. They shall arise against the governments as a mob demanding the righting of the wrongs. The government’s police and military army following orders will commence killing the citizens in trying to control them. This will fail after many deaths because the consciences of the police and military soldiers will lay down their arms and walk in way in grief as to the killings of their fellow citizens. In the midst of this my remnant army will be released to gather the harvest.

Now listen you who preach that My wrath will not be upon this nation, you preach a lie to My people making them complacent in your lies. Repent from your picking and choosing from My word to make your lies sound like the truth. Now listen, you who are in the different camps of religion that will not receive any prophet, repent. Now listen, you who are in the different camps of religion that will not receive a prophet unless he meets the criteria of you camp, repent. How can you receive a prophet's reward when you deny that prophet? I will keep on sending My prophets even though you will listen not. Repent and prepare America because in My judgments I will have My church being My body according to My word that is written. My church shall take the gospel of the kingdom to the world that the end may come." Amen.

I close with this scripture that describes Israel's guilt and punishment. America we are guilty and will suffer for our sins of disobeying and denying God the Holy One that changes not. I added in the word America after Jerusalem in the scripture below. We have been warned by God's prophets for generations. We have heard not or repented not. We will suffer by the hand of God by following Israel's examples.

Micah 6:9-15 ⁹ Listen! Fear the LORD if you are wise! His voice is calling out to everyone in Jerusalem (America): "The armies of destruction are coming; the LORD is sending them. ¹⁰ Will there be no end of your getting rich by cheating? The homes of the wicked are filled with treasures gained by dishonestly measuring out grain in short measures. ¹¹ And how can I tolerate all your merchants who use dishonest scales and weights? ¹² The rich among you have become wealthy through extortion and violence. Your citizens are so used to lying that their tongues can no longer tell the truth. ¹³ "Therefore, I will wound you! I will bring you to ruin for all your sins. ¹⁴ You will eat but never have enough. Your hunger pangs and emptiness will still remain. And though you try to save your money, it will come to nothing in the end. You will save a little, but I will give it to those who conquer you. ¹⁵ You will plant crops but not harvest them. You will press your olives but not get enough oil to anoint yourselves. You will trample the grapes but get no juice to make your wine. (NLT)
