As I was in prayer this day, I heard the word maturity spoken in the Spiritual realm. Then I heard the questions. What is a mature Christian? When does a Christian reach maturity?

Then the Lord spoke the following—“A mature Christian is one who seeks me and is never contented with the level of relationship he has with me. A mature Christian is willing to change each day and drink of my new wine I pour out. A mature Christian wants to hear the truth. A mature Christian wants to listen and apply what he hears (the truth) to serve me and glorify my Kingdom. A mature Christian seeks my face and not my hand. A mature Christian reads and knows my Word and applies the truth of my Word to produce fruit. A mature Christian has moved beyond of finding direction only by my Word, but has received the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and seeks me in the Spirit for I am a Spirit. A mature Christian hears what the Spirit is saying and obeys. A mature Christian seeks me first in all things and draws near to me in his secret place daily. A mature Christian humbles himself before me so I can lift him up. A mature Christian does not comprise my Word but confronts sin and calls sin what it is. A mature Christian hates sin as I hate sin and is holy as I am holy. A mature Christian has love and compassion as I have love and compassion. A mature Christian knows my voice and walks the narrow path for his salvation. A mature Christian lives in my blessings with love, peace and joy. A mature Christian mediates upon my knowledge day and night. A mature Christian always has praises and thanks upon his lips for me. A mature Christian is in unity with me by being one in the Spirit with me. A mature Christian squelches not the Holy Spirit, but is yielded to the Holy Spirit in that his thoughts, his ways and his plans are the same as my thoughts, my ways and my plans. A mature Christian is never mature until the day of salvation, for the path is narrow to salvation and few find it. A mature Christian reaches maturity by walking the path daily looking not to the right or left, is willing to change and drinks the new wine of the Spirit by putting on the coat of Jesus Christ. A mature Christian lives in the world and makes use of the worldly things for the glory of my Kingdom, but the world does not live in him, for I live in him. A mature Christian cannot be one who is comfortable when not seeking the Kingdom daily, for Christians not moving gather much moss and begin to stink like stagnant water. A mature Christian continues to move and flow like moving water and is a sweet fragrance to me, for he baths in the living waters daily and gathers no moss. A mature Christian will be the remnant for the church I am preparing and will have before I come. As my Kingdom is dynamic and always expanding, so is a mature Christian.” Amen.
