As I entered my prayer closet, the Lord said take my note pad and write.

“In the days to come will you be one of the ones to see and be with My Son? He came and died for you that you may have life with him. To do so you must know the rules of My covenant. Can you play any of the games of sports according to how you want it to be? Of course you cannot. You have referees to see if the games are played by the rule book. Those who will not abide by the rule book are disqualified and expelled from the game.

I have My rule book and My referee. But who reads My rule book, the Bible and who listens to My referee the Holy Ghost. Just as the players of your sport games are expelled, many Christians will be expelled and lose what they thought they had. Repent I say. Read the rule book I say. Listen to the referee I say. Then live by the rule book as you are guided by the referee in your life on this earth.

What a sad time it is. My children get excited about sports and know all the rules and can spot a foul play and call out loudly bad play, bad play. Yet these same children know not My rule book making foul plays called sin. Then when other Christians tell them bad play, bad play these Christians are expelled out of the lives of that sinner.

Darkness, oh the darkness of My children. No light, no light they have not My light of the Spirit. Their darkness they call it light. But the light is a false light being the light of another spirit of the darkness of the prince of this world.

My true light is coming. His light will shine upon those so called children of Mine. His light will convict them of their darkness they call light. They will be condemned with the world. My children, repent I say. Gain knowledge and wisdom and live in My light serving Me. Then if you die you will live in My light for ever. My Church is being set in order. Will you serve Me and play by My rules? Or will you continue to play by your own rules being that of the rules of this world? Yes, it is you My children I ask this day. Yes, you who are prideful and rebellious listening to the leaders of the church you are in. You are neither hot nor cold. In judgments if you die, you are lost to the grave and hell and on to the lake of fire when all the books are opened. Repent, repent, repent!!!!!!!

I tarry not. I come. Before I come I am setting My Church in order as the nations rage and the earth vomits forth. Darkness of wickedness covers all the earth this day but My light of righteousness will burst forth. Are you My children ready? Repent I say and make yourself ready. Be the overcomers I am coming for. Without repentance My children, your darkness and you both will be consumed when I come. Repent and live to be overcomers and follow My example. Repent to be My Church.” Amen.
