“Change. Who likes change? Those who seek me and find me, I will change them. How do I change them? I can move them to a new location. I can give them a job they have never done before. I can give them a new heart that will give new thoughts and desires.

As they change, they will become holy as I am holy. They will hate sin as I hate sin. They will not compromise my Word, but speak the truth of my Word.

Will change be easy? Not for all. Some will change by obeying the Spirit and be blessed. Some will change in pain and sorrow and repent to save their souls. Those who change and obey will be my Church without spot or wrinkle in the days to come, for they have become holy as I am holy.

Change now or change later. All will be given a chance to change.”
Amen

As I was seeking the Lord in the spirit, I saw this word in the spiritual realm, F₁they. The Holy Spirit pronounced it ef^o-lay. And gave the definition—“one who is seeking more of God’s truths and when he hears and finds the truth, he accepts it letting the truth cover past traditions and doctrines.”

Then the Lord spoke this—“There are many things I have let stand for centuries in the hopes that my blessings, limited and unlimited, that man of this earth would seek me and come into my truths. Even when I made the Word available to all nations with the event of the printing press, man suppresses my truths with his finite thinking. By man’s choices he will live or die in the days ahead.

No longer will I let the status quo be in the current churches. With judgments, if they change not, one by one I will destroy. They will no longer lift a hand against my people I have called to be my Church. All will know I am the Lord God to be feared and I am the one who can and will send you soul to hell, if you raise your hand against me. Chose to live or chose to die.” Amen.

Psalms 73:27 27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee. (KJV) Psalms 75:4-8 4 "I warned the proud, 'Stop your boasting!' I told the wicked, 'Don't raise your fists! 5 Don't lift your fists in defiance at the heavens or speak with rebellious arrogance.' " 6 For no one on earth--from east or west, or even from the wilderness-- can raise another person up. 7 It is God alone who judges; he decides who will rise and who will fall. 8 For the LORD holds a cup in his hand; it is full of foaming wine mixed with spices. He pours the wine out in judgment, and all the wicked must drink it, draining it to the dregs. (NLT)

“Who speaks my truths? Is it those who listen not to my Spirit? Is it those who deny parts of my Word? Is it those who disobey my commandments? Is it those who call upon my name, but love the pleasures of the world? Is it those who have no time for me in their prayer closet? Is it those who take offense when they hear my truths? Is it those who know about all the worldly sports figures and movie stars, but not me?

Again, who speaks my truths? It is the ones I have called. It is the ones who answered the call. It is the ones who listen and obey the Spirit. It is the ones who read and obey my Word. It is the ones I meet daily in their secret place. It is the ones who know my voice and I their voice. It is the ones who always have praises for me on their lips. It is the ones who are holy as I am holy. It is the ones who love their lives not unto death. It is the ones who may look like a fool in the eyes of the world. It is the ones who walk with me in the cool shadows of the evening. It is the ones that are one with me as I am with the Father.

They are the ones who will speak my truths without compromise. They are the ones who are not in the world. They are the ones the world hates, Churches and Christians included. They are the ones I protect and bless in this world. They are the ones to receive all of the rewards of heaven. They are mine.” Amen.

The Lord spoke—“Trying to understand my Word and apply that understanding to your life and teach that understanding of the truth of my Word to others without the baptism of the Holy Spirit is likened to three blind men trying to describe what an elephant looks like. As the blind men can only describe in part for they cannot see, those without the baptism of the Holy Spirit can only teach in part for they are blind.”

“A prophet is a threat to the status quo. Prophets are only loved by other prophets. Only prophets understand prophets.”
