As I began to seek the Lord in the Spirit on my prayer closet floor the Lord said to write. With pen and my note pad in hand this is what the Lord spoke.

Do You Walk by Faith and Obey the Doctrine of Christ?

“In days past I gave My law to Moses. They were to be kept that My chosen people would be a light from Me unto the world. I knew My people would not obey even before I took them out of Egypt. Knowing that I had already made plans for another way. This other way began with John the Baptist. The other way was completed by My only begotten son Jesus Christ. My chosen people by Jesus Christ still refuse to obey the commandants that My only begotten Son gave.

I ask you My people, do you think you will not be punished for your sin of disobedience? If you answered no, you are wrong. My word says I will pour out My anger and wrath on those who live for themselves, who refuse to obey the truth and practice evil deeds. By disobeying the truth you are living for yourselves by your flesh man thinking all is well with me and my God. How wrong you are. You practice evil deeds being separated from Me by the sin of disobedience.

How much longer will you refuse to feast at My earthly table? Do the crumbs you get from that table satisfy you? How sad if they do. The more crumbs you eat the more I hold back in your blessings. I want to give you more but your selective obedience restricts Me. You say you walk by faith. Where is the healing of the sick? Do the blind see? Do the deaf hear? Do the lame walk? Are your prayers answered fully as you ask? How can I hear much less answer when your sin of disobedience interferes?

Repent and be the Church I am coming for. Repent that you may do the things I have done and even greater things. Repent of your complacency saying all is well with your soul. Repent.

Interlude.

September 27, 2007, the Lord continues.

Repent for the kingdom of God is here by the Spirit and truth. Repent that you may enter into the kingdom of God with new bodies that are not of the flesh. Repent being no longer blind and deaf to the Spiritual kingdom that now surrounds you. Repent and worship Me in spirit and truth by obeying the truth, the commands I gave, as I walked the earth. Repent of your foolish doctrines of don't do, don't touch and we must do. Repent and walk by faith the narrow path obeying the truth that you may be born of the Spirit that you may then hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Only walking by faith and obeying the truth may you receive of My Spiritual kingdom in this life and enter into My physical kingdom without being kicked out only seeing what you have lost. If you are born again you can see My kingdom. To enter into My kingdom you must be born of water and the Spirit. Repent of your picking and choosing the parts of My truth that you want to obey. Fear the one who can kill and send you into hell. Amen.”

Brothers and sisters in Christ, God is grieved by our lack of understanding of His kingdom and disobedience to His word. On July 31, 2007 I began to read Zephaniah chapter one in my prayer closet. When I began and finished reading verses 5-6 the LORD my God allowed me to share a very small part of his grief. A state of sadness came over me and I began to cry and sob as if I had lost a loved one such as my wife. I sat on our basement stairs in grief without words for I do not know how long. The grief began to lift as the Lord explained this is the grief He suffers because His people who claim to be His disobey His word. A few days later I shared with my wife the scriptures and the grief again over took me as I cried and sobbed for those brothers and sisters that are in disobedience to the word of God. How much longer will we listen to the doctrines of man and his interpretation of God’s word? If we have obeyed the word of God, then the Holy Ghost will be our teacher and we will know the truth and the truth will set us free from man’s doctrines. Who will see, who will listen and who will let the hand of God knead our hearts? I pray that you be no longer blind and deaf with a hard heart toward the doctrine of Jesus Christ who died on the cross for the sins of the world. Amen
