September 2, 2005

Last night each time I was awake the Lord kept speaking to me about judgments upon this nation and to wait upon his instructions before I go and do. This morning in my prayer closet the Lord began speaking and I recorded. I then asked the Lord whether to hold his words or send them out. Then the Lord said to also include what he spoke in February of 2005 as a reminder and send forth his warnings from today and yesterday.

The Lord spoke this day—“Just as in the past days the children of Israel believed not the prophets I sent them but killed my prophets, in this day they still listen not to My prophets. The words of warnings have been sent not for just days, weeks or years but for decades and decades yet they listen not but sin more. I change not in My methods. I have sent death and destruction for generations yet they heard not but rebuild to sin more. I will not be mocked any longer. The times of desolations are here and it has begun upon this nation that disowns Me. A remnant I have hid and made ready and they will go forth in the darkest hours to harvest and make My Church ready. But first more desolations are coming on both coasts, the east and the west. Many will be destroyed. What you see today on the south coast is an example of judgments to be completed on this nation the lost tribes of Israel of the house of Jacob called Israel. Repent; be blind and deaf no longer. Then if you die you will live. If you live, serve Me and give Me the glory and honor.

My Church will be made ready before I come. Those who have called Me Lord, Lord have never hurried that day along for they disobey My commands. I will rule over the house of Jacob forever and ever. Do not scorn these words but take heed and receive a prophet’s reward.” Amen.
