September 30, 2007

While in my prayer closet I was listening to the word of God on CD, I became drowsy with my eyes wanting to close. The Lord said write. In my drowsiness I began to write as the Lord spoke even though my flesh man wanted to nap. After a time the Lord stopped speaking. Oh, how we must wait upon the Lord and do all things by His will. This day, October 3, 2007, the Lord said to add amen do what He spoke on September 30, 2007. Only then did I know it was time to publish His words.

Heed what the Lord has spoken, examine yourself and repent if necessary to be part of the Church Jesus Christ is coming for. When Jesus Christ comes again it is not to deal with our sins but to gather His Church that has obeyed His commands.

Are We A Part Of The Church Jesus Chris Is Coming For?

“Who knows My heart, My thoughts and My plans? Who walks with Me every day and every hour in the Spirit? Who walks by faith having faith even in the hour of destruction? Who says Your will not my will as they walk in obedience to the doctrine of My only begotten son Jesus Christ? Who has found the truth being set free from the confines of this world? I will tell you who is not. It is not those who pick and chose the scriptures they want to apply. It is not those who deny of being born of the Spirit. It is not those who are blindly be lead to slaughter not knowing the word of God. It is not those who filter out My desires from heaven above by denominational doctrines. It is not those who seek to apply in their lives the thing of old not looking to heaven hearing what the Spirit is saying. It is not those who say you can't do or say because of what the Law of Moses states.

Wake up My children. I am shaking all that can be shaken on earth and in heaven. If you are blind falling into the ditch because of who you follow, you will be harmed. You could die losing what you claim you have. How many pages should you be removing from your Bible because of your unbelief of My word? How many pages should you be removing from your Bible because you misinterpret my word and apply that to your life? Has My word become a millstone about your neck by not knowing and applying the whole truth of My word in your life? Have I the, I AM, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob become old, tired and weak? Is that what you think? Is that why many of you are sick weak and dying? I have changed not and neither have you. You follow the examples of Israel that My word says not to follow. You are evil and rotten though and though. Who are you that claim much without faith and obedience? It is you that I am judging in this generation and who I have judged in past generations. Repentance I have not seen in this generation or generations past. Now My children in America you will suffer more than past generations because you have the greater sin. To your knees I will bring you My children in America that I may open your eyes and ears that you may repent and obey what My word says and what the Spirit is saying. Border to border and ocean to ocean will be My greater and more severe judgments. For many your faith will fail you and your hearts will turn against Me. There will be a separation of the liars and the faithful servants. Out of this My Church will be made ready that I will come for.

This is the question you must answer and it includes each one of you. ‘In judgments will I sever the Lord my God by faith or will I fall away to sever the enemy?’ The day is here and the question will be answered. Will the fruit you bare be good or bad? Be deceived not. There is only one truth and it must be obeyed to win your race for the salvation of your soul. I will not have favorites when I judge. My judgments will be final. Repent and change now and no longer follow the example of Israel. Be who I called each of you to be. Walk by faith and do My will in your life. Then I can gather and protect you from the harm that is here. You will stand as others fall at your side proclaiming the kingdom of God.” Amen.
