This letter is an answer to a letter to the editor of The Mornings News of Rogers Arkansas dated August 27, 2006.

I must ask this question first. Is the writer of the letter a Christian affiliated with a denomination? If so I fear for her as I do for all denominational Christians. Why the fear? We should be students of the word of God, the Holy Bible if we are professing Christians. Then we would find the covenants of these specific belief systems are incomplete and incompatible with the doctrine of Christ being an abomination to God. We would find the specific belief systems have taken certain parts of the word of God that makes the flesh man comfortable calling it by a denominational name. By doing this, these belief systems have sliced and diced the word of God cutting up Jesus Christ into their image and this is what they worship being idol worship. These belief systems also butcher Christ further by building churches based on the likes and dislikes of the surrounding communities believing they must preach Jesus a certain way or dress a certain way being another abomination to God. These belief systems have then made a covenant with man called government obtaining a 501c3 nonprofit status. Now they must serve man by that covenant fearing man and not God. These belief systems build brick and mortar monuments to themselves never building the body of Christ within those brick and mortar buildings spiritually by the commands of Jesus Christ. These belief systems have driven out those who know the truth as they hear the lies being preached being the true sons and daughters of God. These belief systems make the house of God divided and it will not and it cannot stand because these belief systems are not the Church Jesus Christ will be coming for.

Therefore praise God that the church being built has no denominational name out front. That in itself is pleasing to God. But within the walls of that new church, if the whole truth of the word of God is not being taught that they may move beyond the principles of the doctrine of Christ coming into perfection as the apostle Paul taught then all their works are in vain. They are just another belief system in these last times following lying spirits and teachings that come from demons. Why? The belief system of that church will be preaching about a different Jesus that what the apostle Paul taught.

It is not what the writer of the letter to the editor thinks or what I think or what anyone else thinks. We must keep our focus upon Jesus Christ that we may do the will of the Father in heaven by obeying all the commands given to us by Jesus Christ being not workers of iniquity. Judgment has begun in these belief systems these denominational churches calling themselves the house of God that the Church Jesus Christ is coming for will be made ready. Where do you stand this day and where will you be standing on the day when Christ comes for his Church that will give him praises? Have you worked out our own salvations with fear and trembling? These are the questions you should be asking yourself.
